Key knowledge:

The prophets (e.g. Abraham, Noah, Moses, Jonah) chose to listen to God and put their beliefs into action.

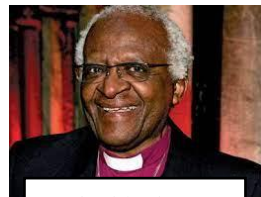

Christians today (e.g. Dr Barnardo, Archbishop Desmond Tutu, William Booth) follow God's word and live a life of service - serving God and the community.

God is described as creator and sustainer.

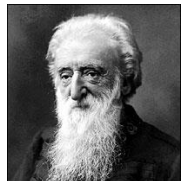

God is believed to sustain the world through revealing his messages to the Prophets.

Books you might like:

This is what I've learned in the Year before:

Bibles stories about prophets in the Old Testament.

The Bible is like a library of different types of books and stories.

This will help me to:

Identify how prophets and Christians today were inspired God.

Understand that people are inspired guided by people they look up.
